More Successes Claimed by the Communists.

The Army of Versailles Concentrating for a Decisive Attack.

Thiers Opposed to Conciliation, and Confident of Victory—The Paris Delegates Well Received.

French Reports.

TIERS CONFIDENT. PARIS, April 13.—Thiers is now opposed to conciliation and thinks the success of the army is certain.

THE INSURGENT POSITION.

A battery of big guns has been mounted in the Avenue Du Trocadero, pointing towards Fort Du Mont Valerien. The nationals are massed near the arch of Triumph. General Dombrowski has selected Armines as the center of operations against Courtois. Longchamps and Armines are both well fortified. Paris is calm, but the exodus of the inhabitants continues.

THE SITUATION UNCHANGED.

VERSAILLES, April 13.—Thiers, in a circular bearing date of the evening of the 12th, describes the situation as in the main unchanged, and says the Government will act at the proper time. The communists' accounts of victory at Paris are false. They are unprincipled. Our victory will come bloodlessly.

THE PARIS DELEGATES

have arrived, and were received, not because they are communists, but because they are Republicans. The answer to them was that none menace the republic but assassins. The lives of the insurgents will be spared, but the workmen temporarily subsidized in Paris must return to their labor and secession be suppressed, as it has been in America. A dispatch from Versailles says that city is quiet, and the police force is being reorganized.

DOMBROWSKI'S REPORT.

PARIS, April 13.—General Dombrowski reports to the communal committee that the troops under his command are doing excellent service; that they already hold three-fourths of the town of Neuilly, and hope to have possession of the bridge across the Seine to-night.

INSURGENT SUCCESSES

The Cri Du Peuple says the Versailles troops have been driven from Neuilly, and are flying towards Courbevoie. The attack made yesterday by the Versailles forces was a failure. The Orleans railway has been cut by the Versailles troops.

REALLY CANONNING.

That was heavy and uninterrupted cannonading during the whole of last night, which has grown violent this morning. Fort Mont Valerien is firing heavily. The members of the commune are personally on the field to encourage their wearied troops.

The British consul at Paris has warned all Englishmen to leave the city.THE INSURGENTS SUCCESSFUL.

PARIS, April 13.—That portion of the Versailles army engaged in the attack on the outlying forts to the South of Paris, has suffered greatly in both killed and wounded. The Communists have surrounded three thousand under General D'Armies, near Agde, and their capitulation is thought probable.

General Dombrowski is very popular with his troops. He declares he will burn Neuilly, Villevill and Puteaux if such a step should be necessary for the defense of Paris.

The bombardment of Maillot gate continues.

A dispatch from Versailles says there is a GREAT CONCENTRATION OF TROOPS before that city, that General McMahon has gone to Ville Litang, and that a decisive attack upon the insurgent position is expected.

GENERAL DENIALS.

VERSAILLES, April 13.—It is officially announced that the alleged communists' victories are entirely without foundation. No engagement took place Tuesday and Wednesday. There was merely an insurgen- fistic fusade followed by cannonading. There has been no engagement this morning. All the roads leading to Paris are occupied by the Versailles troops.

THIERS' TERMS.

VERSAILLES, April 13.—The delegates from the party of the commune have returned to Paris. The conditions of peace proposed to them by President Thiers were that Paris shall first lay down her arms, and then the municipal franchise will be granted to the city.

German Reports.

BRUSSELS, April 13.—The German communal delegates who are to assist in the peace conference arrived to-day.

GERMAN AFFAIRS.

BERLIN, April 13.—The amount of credit to be asked of the German Parliament is one hundred and twenty millions of thalers. General Herwarth von Belsenfeld has been promoted to the rank of field marshal.

English Reports.

THE INSURGENTS ADVANCING. LONDON, April 13.—The Times' special from Versailles says: A column of insurgents advanced to Clamart without meeting opposition. Thiers opposed to bringing on a decisive action until 50,000 additional men shall have reinforced the Versailles army.

Dombrowski telegraphs to the communal committee that his forces have occupied three-fourths of the town of Neuilly.

A LETTER FROM GUEROUZ, on the state of affairs in France, is published to-day. He approves of the conduct of the assembly; trusts that the result will be certain and decisive.
